The “Günstiger leben in München” (Living More Cheaply in Munich) exhibition will be held in Munich from 1pm to 5pm on 18 November 2023.

Location: The “shaere” centre at Fritz-Schäffer-Strasse 9 in the Neuperlach district of Munich can be reached via the U5, U7 and U8 metro lines (Neuperlach-Zentrum station).

At the exhibition, people with low incomes (and anyone else) can learn about:

- Low-cost and no-cost services, cultural opportunities and recreational options: how do you save money in an expensive city like Munich?
- Ways to rent a cheap apartment and how to apply for one
- Education in school and out of school (including language courses)
- Job opportunities and professional qualifications
- How to take up a volunteer position
- Healthcare, even if you don't have health insurance
- Advice and assistance for those in financial distress

Free hot food and childcare will be provided.

The exhibition has barrier-free access.

All information is in German.

We look forward to your visit!
